Website Privacy Notice

Effective date of this privacy notice: 1st December 2021

Your privacy and the protection of your personal data is important to us. This Privacy Notice explains the type of personal data Takeda may collect from you and how we use it.

Takeda is a globally operating group of companies. The Takeda enterprise includes the parent company Takeda Pharmaceutical Company Limited, and its affiliated entities (together "Takeda" or "We"). Should you contact us to report a problem or make a complaint or otherwise communicate with us, we collect information in order to resolve your query. For contact information related to your local affiliate, please refer to Takeda website at <https://www.takeda.com/who-we-are/company-information/worldwide-offices/>.

This ADHD eForum is provided to you to advance education on ADHD and available treatments, giving you access to a wealth of resources and invitations to live webinars. The website is gated and is only available to healthcare professionals in the United Kingdom; in order for us to compliantly provide you with the most relevant resources to your clinical practice. For this purpose, we may collect, use, store and disclose information about you, including your name, e-mail, User ID, password etc. as well as information about your job title, role, professional background, date of birth and medical information.

When you visit the website, we may also automatically collect technical information such as Internet Protocol (IP) address, your login information, browser type and version, your usage data etc.

The personal data collected about you will be shared with Phase-five Healthcare Consultancy Limited as a third party vendor for site management.

Our use of your personal data as described above is based on consent of the individual. Serving our legitimate interests to promote our products and disease awareness.

We may share your information with service providers and business partners around the world with whom we collaborate to fulfil the above purposes (e.g. fulfilment services, technical support, external consultants and external counsels). We may also share your information with other Takeda affiliates and subsidiaries. The sharing of your personal data may involve transfers to other countries. The data protection and privacy laws in these countries may not provide the same level of protection as your home country. Takeda will put in place safeguards to adequately protect your personal data in connection with such transfers.

For more detailed information on how Phase-five Healthcare Consultancy Limited processes personal data, please contact admin@phase-five.net.

We keep your personal data for as long as you use this service/application. We may also keep your data for a reasonable period following the fulfilment of our services or termination of your relationship with us or discontinuation of your use of our application, unless a longer retention period is required or permitted by law.

This website uses cookies. A cookie is a small piece of text that the websites you visit send to your browser. Cookies allow sites to remember information about your visit, which can make sites easier to revisit and more useful to you. This website uses cookies in order to provide necessary website functionality, improve your experience and analyse our traffic. By using this website you agree that Takeda can place these types of cookies on your device.

If you are creating a Takeda ID that you can use to authenticate multiple Takeda applications (i.e. websites, mobile app. etc.) to obtain a single sign-on experience and enabling you to use the same credentials for multiple Takeda applications Takeda will collect your name, e-mail, password, country, as well as some interaction information to manage your Takeda ID account. Takeda application will use your Takeda ID to verify your identity. The Takeda ID application will have no access to any additional data collected by other Takeda applications.

Takeda uses Okta, a 3rd party service, to manage your Takeda ID. For more information about Okta and their processing of personal data, see www.okta.com/privacy-policy. We will keep your personal data for as long as you are actively using your Takeda ID with one or more of our Takeda applications. Accounts that are inactive for more than two years will be deactivated and account data will be deleted.
